

Montreal

Canadian Grand Prix, 8th Race, 18th June 2000

Gilles Villeneuve Circuit

Circuit length: 4.421 km

Race distance: 69 laps

Race length: 305.049 km

Source: FIA

Jean Todt
Ferrari Team
Manager

The city course in Montreal is a Ferrari track – we have won here three times in the last five years. We reckon we have got a good chance of victory this year too even though the competition is pretty strong. The cars are put under a great deal of strain in Canada so it is important to find a perfect set-up from the very start. Our objective is to win and to consolidate our lead in the World Championship.